

Maricopa Association of Governments (MAG)

Position Title: Transportation Planning & Design Engineer (Transportation Engineer III)

Closes: The position is open until filled.

Status: Full-Time, Exempt

Salary: $68,401 - $102,601, Depending on Qualifications

Location: Maricopa Association of Governments, downtown Phoenix, Arizona.

The Position:

MAG is seeking a qualified transportation engineer to support its efforts in the Transportation Policy and Planning Division. The position will focus on activities related to the management and implementation of the Freeway Life Cycle Program and Regional Transportation Plan (RTP). Duties include managing transportation planning studies; assessing and evaluating transportation infrastructure design, functionality, cost, schedule, and project risk analysis; developing alternative approaches to respond to transportation and traffic needs; and coordination with key stakeholders for project design and implementation efforts. The position will also include public meeting presentations and facilitation of working group sessions.

The Candidate:

The ideal candidate will be proficient in leading planning level analysis and reviewing engineering and design-specific solutions, and have experience with managing consultants or consultant teams, preferably in a large urban area. The candidate should also have experience presenting complex technical information to a diverse set of stakeholders, including members of the public and policy makers. Experience coordinating with internal and external agency partners a plus.

Experience and Education

A Bachelor's degree in transportation planning, civil engineering, public administration or related field with a minimum of at least five (5) years of experience in freeway and roadway design and/or planning required. Private sector and project management experience is preferred.

About MAG

The Maricopa Association of Governments (MAG) is a group of local governments working together on issues that touch the lives of every resident. We are a regional planning agency that develops solutions in areas such as transportation, air quality, economic development, and programs that meet the human needs of the region.

MAG serves a thriving region of more than 4 million people. Our members include 27 cities and towns, three Native American communities, Maricopa County and Pinal County. Our planning area encompasses more than 10,000 square miles. MAG is a council of governments and the designated metropolitan planning organization for transportation planning.

MAG conducts extensive applied research to help frame public policy and further our core mission of strengthening the Greater Phoenix region. Through innovative tools such as our interactive online maps, we make data accessible to the public for a broad range of uses.
