

WYATT BERGER

[wyattberger@email.arizona.edu](mailto:w Wyattberger@email.arizona.edu) • (520)461-4341 • <https://www.linkedin.com/in/wyattberger/>

SUMMARY

A Master of Science in Urban Planning student with a focus on transportation planning. Interdisciplinary exposure to planning research and analysis. Strong leadership capabilities both professionally as well as academically.

EDUCATION

University of Arizona Tucson, Arizona
Master of Science in Urban Planning, Transportation Planning emphasis May 2021

University of Arizona Honors College Tucson, Arizona
Bachelor of Science in Sustainable Built Environments, Heritage Conservation emphasis May 2019
Minor in French and Francophone Studies

EXPERIENCE

School of Landscape Architecture and Planning, University of Arizona Jan 2021-present

Graduate Research Assistant

- Support faculty in the development of a National Institute for Transportation and Communities (NITC) funded project examining metrics for transportation in disadvantaged communities.
- Complete data analysis and report writing for a proposed walkability toolkit.

School of Landscape Architecture and Planning, University of Arizona Aug 2019-present

Graduate Assistant

- Generate sustained support for four separate university courses by grading exams, papers, and assignments.
- Field additional guidance to students when requested via email and by appointment.

City and County of San Francisco Planning Department Jun 2020-Dec 2020

Public Service Trainee

- Collected, analyzed, and interpreted documentation of historic and cultural resources related to the Citywide Cultural Resources Survey Project.
- Drafted two completed 10,000-word historic context statements during the formal internship program; completed a third 23,000-word context statement during the fall semester.
- Presented the findings and interpretations of two context statements to nearly 100 staff attendees.
- Exposed to virtual trainings and meetings related to current planning, CEQA, and code enforcement.

Tucson Historic Preservation Foundation Jun 2019-Aug 2019

Intern

- Researched and conducted fieldwork for two historic properties endangered by demolition or alteration.
- Reviewed and polished existing documentation into a comprehensive and succinct format.

Oro Valley Parks and Recreation Department Jun 2018-Jul 2018

Recreation Intern Aid

- Coordinated and facilitated three public meetings to disseminate the Town's preservation goals.
- Acted as a point-of-contact with the public via email, phone, and in-person to minimize preservation concerns.

TECHNICAL REPORTS

- Telephone & Telegraph (draft) San Francisco Citywide Historic & Cultural Context Statement (2020)
- Police Stations (draft) San Francisco Citywide Historic & Cultural Context Statement (2020)
- Transit (draft) San Francisco Citywide Historic & Cultural Context Statement (2020)
- Honors thesis: Identification of Historic Streetscape Features in Three Tucson NRHP Districts (2019)
- Fort Lowell, Historic American Landscape Survey (HALS) AZ-24 (2018)
- Juan Santa Cruz Picnic Area Conservation Plan (unpublished) (2018)

HONORS

- National Institute for Transportation and Communities (NITC) Student Scholar Award (2019 and 2020)
- Vice President of the Graduate Planning Society (GPS) (2020-present)
- First-Year Representative of the Graduate Planning Society (GPS) (2019-2020)
- College of Architecture, Planning and Landscape Architecture (CAPLA) Student Ambassador (2017-2019)
- Wildcat Excellence Award Recipient (2015-2019)

RELEVANT SKILLS

- Adobe Creative Suite (InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop)
- Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- ESRI ArcMap
- Google SketchUp
- Archival, institutional, and web-based research
- Site planning
- Survey design
- Organizational and time-management skills under strict deadlines
- Meeting facilitation

CONFERENCES ATTENDED

- APA Arizona 2020 State Planning Conference (September 2020)
- 99th Annual Transportation Research Board Conference in Washington, DC (January 2020)
- APA Arizona 2019 State Planning Conference (September 2019)